

PUBLIC NOTICE

The Board of Supervisors of Unity Township will conduct a Special Meeting on Thursday August 20, 2020, at 6:00 p.m. in the outdoor pavilion behind the Unity Township Municipal Building at 154 Beatty County Road, Latrobe, PA 15601, to take public comment on the propriety of permitting chickens to be kept on properties within the Township located in residential zoning districts and/or on other properties with less than two (2) acres of land. This is an “informational meeting” “only. Comment will be limited to this topic and no other matters, or cases in progress, will be discussed. Participants will be required to provide their names and addresses before speaking. The Supervisors will use the information presented to determine whether modifications are necessary to existing Unity Township Ordinances restricting this activity. No decisions will be made and no vote by the Supervisors will take place at this meeting. This meeting is being conducted outside to comply with Pennsylvania Department of Health COVID-19 guidelines and permit more than 25 people to assemble. However, social distancing will still be practiced and masks are required. Seating provided by the Township may be limited and participants are encouraged to bring their own lawn chairs to avoid being required to stand. Persons who support and oppose keeping chickens on properties within the Township located in residential zoning districts and/or on other properties with less than 2 acres of land are encouraged to participate. Questions concerning this special meeting may be addressed by contacting the office of the Unity Township Supervisors at 724-539-2546 prior to the meeting. Any person requiring special accommodations to attend should contact Township Secretary Sharon Sweeney not less than 24 hours prior to the meeting so arrangements can be made.
